CHECK-IN

10. Check-in time is between 1400 - 1600 hrs. Room availability is subject to the completion of cleaning and maintenance works. In the event of unforeseen circumstances, additional waiting should be expected due to the unavailability of the allocated unit for check-in.
11. Applicants are required to show the booking confirmation email during check-in.
12. Members who reserved the chalet / bungalow unit are required to check in AND check out personally. In the event that the member is unable to check in OR check out personally, he / she must submit a formal request to authorise a relative/friend to check in or check out on his/her behalf.
13. Public rates will apply for reservations made by members if they do not personally utilise the chalet / bungalow unit they reserved.
14. The applicant will be given the chalet / bungalow unit's key at the Reception Office.
 - a. The applicant is required to report any damage to the Member Relations Officer via WhatsApp, a phone call, or in-person. Otherwise, all items will be considered to be accounted for and in good condition.
 - b. The applicant or authorised person who reserved the chalet / bungalow unit shall accept full responsibility and compensate the club for any damaged and / or lost item(s) in the chalet / bungalow unit or within the club's premises.
15. The applicant will be provided with three (3) complimentary parking tickets (one-time entry) per night of stay; parking lots are subject to availability.
16. Housekeeping services are not available during the stay.
17. In the event that a unit's door keys are lost, the club will replace the door lock to ensure the security of our units and occupants. A replacement fee of $150 will be charged for the purchase and installation of the new lock.
18. A replacement fee of $10 will be charged for any damage to the chalet / bungalow unit's keys.

DURING THE STAY

19. Occupants shall permit reasonable access and inspection of their unit by THE CHEVRONS Security Officers at all times.
20. Occupants shall be responsible for the behaviour of all invited guests, family members, and friends who are visiting, or staying over at the chalet / bungalow, and ensure they maintain an acceptable level of noise, orderliness, and observe the rules and regulations of the club at all times. Any form of behaviour deemed to be rowdy or found to have created any nuisance or disturbance may lead to the immediate eviction of the occupant(s) or their guests from the club's premises.
21. Professional sound systems with tower speakers and subwoofers are not allowed in the chalet / bungalow premises. The club reserves the rights to terminate the booking and evict any occupant found to have violated this regulation, and / or caused disturbance to neighbouring occupants. No refunds will be accorded in such cases.
22. The occupant must ensure that there is no wastage of water and electricity. Lighting, air-conditioners, and other electrical appliances are to be switched off when not in use.
23. Bath towels provided in the chalet / bungalow unit are to be used for bathing-related purposes only, and not for any other purposes (e.g. as a rug for cleaning feet, as a cloth to wipe stains off the floor, etc.). Any towel found to be misused, soiled, damaged, or misplaced will be charged at $20 per piece for replacement.

24. Party decorations, if any, are allowed only within the confines of the allocated unit. Any form of adhesive shall not be used on any part of the walls, furniture, or fixtures in the unit. Any damage caused as a result of the installation or removal of decorations will be chargeable, and the repair / replacement cost shall be determined by the club.
25. Heavy cooking (e.g. frying, deep frying, grilling) is prohibited in bungalow and chalet units. Occupants shall only use the microwave oven provided within the unit for reheating of food or short duration light cooking. Microwave oven damaged due to prolonged usage will be chargeable in accordance with replacement cost listed in the inventory list.

 - d. Use of personal electrical appliances (e.g. induction cooker, sound system, etc.).
 - e. Pets.
 - f. Setting up of tents, marquees, furniture, bouncing castles, playground equipment, etc.
30. Subletting of the chalet / bungalow units for commercial or non-commercial purposes is strictly prohibited. Any applicant found to have repurposed the chalet / bungalow booking for commercial purposes (e.g. reselling reserved bookings to third parties) will have their booking cancelled without any refund accorded.

INDEMNITY

31. The club shall not be held responsible for the loss of any valuables of the occupants and guests during their stay or while they are within the club's premises.
32. The club and its staff shall not be held liable for any injury or accident sustained by the occupants and guests during their stay or while they are within the club's premises.

USE OF CLUB'S FACILITIES

33. Occupants may use the club's facilities except those exclusive to club members.
34. Occupants are required to observe the appropriate dress code at all times when patronising any of the club's facilities.

RIGHTS OF THE CLUB

35. The club management reserves the rights:
 - a. To cancel any reservation without explication.
 - b. To reassign units for confirmed bookings without any prior notice.
 - c. To charge the occupants for any loss, damage, cost of replacement, or reparation of any item(s) in the units and within the club's premises caused by the occupants.
 - d. To take action against any occupant found to have misused or created a disturbance and / or nuisance at the chalet / bungalow units or any facility within the club's premises. Such action may lead to the immediate eviction of the occupant(s) from the club's premises without the refund of any rental fees.
 - e. To vary the terms and conditions at any time without prior notice.
 - f. To evict any occupant(s) and their visitor(s) for the breach of any Safe Management Measures.
36. Occupants shall permit reasonable access and inspection of their units by security officers of the club, and authorised personnel such as the police, or the club's staff.
37. Any violation of the regulations or any falsification of information will render the occupants liable to be evicted from the chalet / bungalow unit and barred from future application / occupation.

GOVERNMENT QUARANTINE FACILITY

38. The chalets and bungalows at THE CHEVRONS are designated as government quarantine facilities (GQF) that may be activated should the need arise. If, and when the chalets and bungalows at the clubhouse are activated as a GQF, all occupants and their guests must vacate the premises within 12 - 15 hours.
39. Upon activation, the Reception office will process and issue a full refund of the booking fees to the occupant, regardless of the duration of stay.

SAFE MANAGEMENT MEASURES

40. All occupants have the responsibility to notify the club if they felt unwell, if they had any travel history, or if they had any contact with COVID-19 patients within the past 14 days before, or during the stay. The club has the right to cancel the booking, and a full refund will be issued. However, the occupant will forfeit the full booking fee if he / she failed to declare any of the conditions listed above.
41. The applicant is required to submit a list of names and the contact numbers of all the individuals who will be visiting or staying over at the chalet / bungalow unit via e-mail (mro@chevrans.org.sg) at least five days before the check-in date.

42. When the Reception Office is fully occupied, visitors must queue up at the designated waiting area outside the office, while maintaining a distance of at least 1m apart from other individuals or groups.
43. Applicants are not allowed to book more than one chalet and / or bungalow unit in the same stay period. The club reserves the rights to cancel any booking found to be in violation of this rule.
44. Smoking is only allowed within the designated area near the chalet units. Maximum number of persons allowed in the designated smoking area shall be in accordance to prevailing safe management measures group size limit for social gathering, and individuals must maintain a distance of at least 1M apart from others at all times.
45. Occupants must wear a mask at all times, except when eating, drinking, smoking, or swimming.
46. Occupants must comply with all instructions given by the club's Safe Management Ambassadors and Security Officers for the rectification of any Safe Management Measures violations.
47. Any individual or group found to have ignored warnings by the club's staff with regards to Safe Management Measures will be asked to leave the premise immediately. Assistance from the Singapore Police Force will be sought if any individual or group is found to be uncooperative.
48. The club has the right to stop individuals who are feeling unwell from entering the clubhouse. Individuals who are feeling unwell are advised to seek medical help as soon as possible.
49. Occupants and guests must check in / out using SafeEntry and show proof when requested.
50. The maximum number of persons allowed in each chalet / bungalow unit shall be in accordance to prevailing safe management measures group size limit for social gathering or unit permissible SCDF occupancy load limit (Chalet 7 pax / Bungalow 11 pax), whichever lower. The club reserves the right to request for occupants to produce their NRIC, or documents to verify that they share the same address as the other occupants if group size above the prevailing safe management measures group size limit for social gathering are found to be in the unit.
51. Occupants and their visitors are only allowed to enter the unit they are assigned. Crossing over or interchanging of units or intermingling with occupants of other units are not allowed.
52. Only the individuals listed in the name list provided to the club prior to the stay, up to the prevailing safe management measures group size limit for social gathering per booking for the entire duration of the stay, are allowed to enter their assigned unit. Occupants are not allowed to add or swap names in the name list after check-in. Individuals who are not listed in the name list provided to the club prior to check-in are not allowed to enter the unit.
53. Security Officers and Safe Management ambassadors reserve the right to stop the activities of any unauthorised gatherings and disperse any crowd.
54. Security Officers will conduct random spot checks on any chalet / bungalow unit. Occupants must allow Security Officers to enter the unit and comply with all instructions given.
55. Occupants must inform the club's staff immediately if any individual in their unit develops a fever or feels unwell (Reception Office: 0900 - 1700 hrs, Security Office: 1700 - 0900 hrs).
56. Food delivery items are to be collected from the atrium; food delivery personnel will not be allowed to enter the premises to deliver food at the chalet and bungalow area. For the delivery of BBQ food items, or a large quantity of items, occupants must escort the delivery personnel to their units.
